

Since the No Call List was established, our home has been quite satisfied with no soliciting phone calls. They were always coming in during the day, during the time we were eating supper, or during our family time. I would like to request the FCC petition be withdrawn immediately.